

Name: _____

Playing Invictus sports

The Remembrance Club members are playing adaptive sports. These are sports like wheelchair basketball that are played at the Invictus Games.

This special sports event is for Veterans or military members who are wounded, injured, or sick. Taking part can be an important part of their healing journey.

